Veteran Student Life Award Application/Nomination Deadline: February 23rd

Nominations for UConn's Willis N. Hawley Service and Leadership Award are now available! The deadline for nominations/applications will be February 23rd. $1,000 will be given to a UConn student (from any campus - undergraduate or graduate). This award recognizes a student veteran who has made significant contributions to the University community through leadership and service during their tenure as a student. The recipient will have demonstrated a commitment to raising awareness and actively advocating for veteran's issues at the University.

More information is available online at <http://sla.uconn.edu/award-descriptions/> along with the online nomination form.

If you know someone you want to nominate, or you would like to nominate yourself, go in and make your nomination by Feb. 23rd!

Fill out your FAFSA!

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is your gateway to grants and loans from the government for your education. Even if you already receive benefits from the VA you may still be eligible for grants from the federal government. However, you must fill out a FAFSA to receive them.

To apply for maximum available benefits for the 2018-19 academic year, you must fill out you FAFSA by March 1st!

Potential for thousands of dollars to be awarded. Go to <https://financialaid.uconn.edu/checklist/> for the link to the FAFSA, and for more information for completing it.

Veteran of the Month: February 2018

Jay Shaw

The Office of Veterans Affairs & Military Programs at UConn is pleased to honor Jay Shaw as our Veteran of the Month for February 2018. Jay Shaw served in the U.S. Navy for eight years in the Submarine Service. From the military, Jay says he learned the importance of working together as a unit. Going through that experience, he felt he became part of a family, “a brotherhood: you will go through hell with these people and they will go with you.” When Jay left the Navy in December 2016, Jay knew he wanted to go to college.

Jay enrolled right away at the UConn Hartford campus in January 2017 and he stayed in the New London area for the first half of the semester. Part-way through the semester, Jay moved to Hartford to be closer to the UConn Hartford campus. During that first semester, Jay shared that it helped him to “walk and talk my way through every class and learn from the experiences of other student Veterans on-campus.” In particular, he says Troy Norman really helped him keep his dream alive to keep pursuing his college education after leaving the Navy. During the Fall 2017 semester Jay was an integral part of the student Veterans who helped set-up the Oasis at the new location of the Hartford Campus. Currently, Jay is pursuing his Bachelor’s Degree in Nutritional Sciences. This semester, part of his classes are in Hartford, and part of them are at the Storrs campus. In addition to juggling classes between two different campuses at UConn, Jay will be working in the main Office of Veterans Affairs and Military Programs at UConn in Storrs this Spring 2018 semester.

Jay says that what he most appreciates about UConn is “the people, the diversity, different opinions, and teachers and staff; they have been the fuel that reminds me to carry on.”

If you would like to nominate a student, faculty, or staff member for “Veterans of the Month,” please contact Nikki Cole at Nikki.cole@uconn.edu with the name of the person and reasons for your nomination.
