Post 9/11 - Chapter 33 Checklist

1. Students must apply to the University of Connecticut
   - If Veteran apply on line at: https://admissions.uconn.edu/apply/veteran-military
   - If Dependent apply on line at: https://admissions.uconn.edu/
   - If Veteran request your Joint Service Transcript (SMART) at www.jist.doded.mil
   - If USAF Veteran Request your CCAF at Community College of the Air Force Transcripts
   - If Veteran Send required documents for the application fee waiver (as listed on admissions website) to beahusky@uconn.edu
   - Complete the FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov - Financial Aid can be used in conjunction with GI Bill benefits.

2. Apply to utilize or update your GI-Bill benefits at www.vets.gov
   - Click on Apply for education benefits
   - Click Find Your Education Benefits Form
   - Click on the appropriate box to apply (first time use) or to update (change of place or training) your educational Benefits

3. Supply supporting documentation to the Office of Military Programs and Veteran Affairs.
   - IF Veteran or Dependent - Provide COE (Certificate of Eligibility – obtained from the VA or print out of Educational Entitlement from Vets.Gov)

4. If eligible, apply for the Connecticut State Veterans Tuition Waiver:
   - Visit https://veterans.uconn.edu/cveteranswaiver/ for eligibility and documentation requirements.
   - If you are enrolled in the EMBA, CEIN, PMBA, Pharm D, or a Certificate Program, please contact this office for a complete overview of what the CT Veterans Waiver will cover.

5. Register for classes/ Submit Online Form:
   - Register for classes (Only courses which apply to the program graduation requirement can be certified – the credits awarded must bring the credits left to graduate down by an equal amount)
   - Once registered, submit the ONLINE Request for Certification Form D at https://veterans.uconn.edu/benefits/forms/.
   - This applies to ALL Students wishing to use any Military related benefit (State or Federal) at the University of Connecticut.
   - THE FORM D MUST BE SUBMITTED ONLINE PRIOR TO EACH semester! Failure to do so will delay funding **

6. Guest Students:
   - Students attending another college or university wanting to take a transfer course at UConn need to provide:
     - Supplemental letter from the parent school
     - Current Certificate of Eligibility of college attending
     - Complete and turn in Form D at https://veterans.uconn.edu/benefits/forms/